AGAINST ALL ODDS

AGAINST ALL ODDS

The series questions the formula of a happy marriage against all difficulties...

Çetin and İpek are from different backgrounds and have different personalities; they live in same neighbourhood and love each other since their childhood.

Çetin is a traditional man although İpek is a modern city girl. Actually they are not an ideal couple, this is the love of opposite poles.

Once they get married, they move into Çetin's family house. İpek is not happy about this and wants to move away from her mother in law who always criticizes her. Finally they manage to save enough money to buy their own house but Çetin lends this money to his older foolish brother Metin in order to help him with his new business.

Once İpek finds out about this, they quarrel and they decide to get divorced although they still love each other. When they go to the court, the judge realizes that they still love each other and he postpones the case for 8 months.

Couple's best friend Nazlı, a nurse, and her husband Hasan, a restaurant owner, try to convince them to not to break up. They try to show them that it's possible to carry on a happy marriage with difficulties. They live with Hasan's family, life is not easy for them either but they still love each other.

Things are also complicated for Çetin and İpek on their business lives. They are both police officers and their chief Muhsin tries to make peace among them. Their kids also plan something and they have to live in the same house just because of this plan until they get a divorce.

İpek's mother and sister also give a visit and poke their noses into it, so things become more complicated at home.

In the meantime, İpek's first love is appointed to the Fraud Department where İpek and Çetin work. Çetin feels extremely uncomfortable about this situation.

We also see different fraud cases being solved by our couple in each episode.
