CAMPUS CHEF

As an entertaining cooking show Campus Chef, visits different university in each episode.

In each show, three food trucks arranged by the production team and they pick six students as a contestant while visiting the gastronomy departments of the universities, then form three teams of two.

After contestants introducing themselves shortly, the professional chef who is also the presenter of the show, tells the competitors the common menu they are going to cook. After that, contestants take their places in their food truck to cook the meal in the best way at the same time.

Our presenter has a short conversation with the contestants who take their places at the food trucks. Later on, leaves the kitchen to the contestants and has small interview with the students at the campus. When he quickly becomes the quest of campus life and the colorful world of the students, the contestants prepare their meals in food trucks.

CAMPUS CHEF

While the contestants are preparing their menu, they give definitions of their recipes in detail and share the materials they use with professional hints.

After the given time is up for the contestants, our talented chefs take their places for voting categories: The Taste and the presentation.

The jury is formed with six people. Three of the jury is the instructors of the contestants and the other three is the students studying at the other departments of the university.

As a jury student members can give points from 1-5, and the instructor members can give points from 1-10 in both categories.

Every member of the jury comments about the menu that teams prepared and then the results are revealed.

After each show, winner becomes the one who gets the highest points and wins 5.000 dollars and Campus Chef food trucks go on their way to find new young chef contestants!
