FORGIVE ME

FORGIVE ME

The powerful drama “Forgive Me” tells the story of the Numan family and the rivalries and dark secrets which stand in the way of its sons finding true love. Adnan, a wealthy businessman from Baghdad, demands that his sons Cemal and Kemal find wealthy wives, but their passionate hearts will bring conflict that threatens the family’s future.

Eldest son Cemal loves Feride, who was raised in the family as an adopted daughter, but Adnan opposes their marriage. Their love is also thwarted by Samar, who became a designer at the family company as part of a plot to take revenge on Adnan. She believes he killed her family. Samar convinces Cemal that Feride has a secret lover, leaving him feeling betrayed.

Samar succeeds in working her way into Cemal’s heart and ruining Feride’s life, unaware she is actually the sister she has sought for years. Devastated at being rejected, Feride accepts another man’s proposal of marriage to spite Cemal. Later, when Cemal discovers that Feride was actually innocent he asks for her forgiveness, but now pride prevents her from going back to him.

Abandoned by Feride, Cemal turns to Samar and proposes to her. But the vengeful Samar has already hired a hitman to kill Adnan. Unable to call off the assassination, Samar puts her own life at risk when the hit man strikes at the wedding. Samar is wounded, but she succeeds in her plan to marry Cemal.

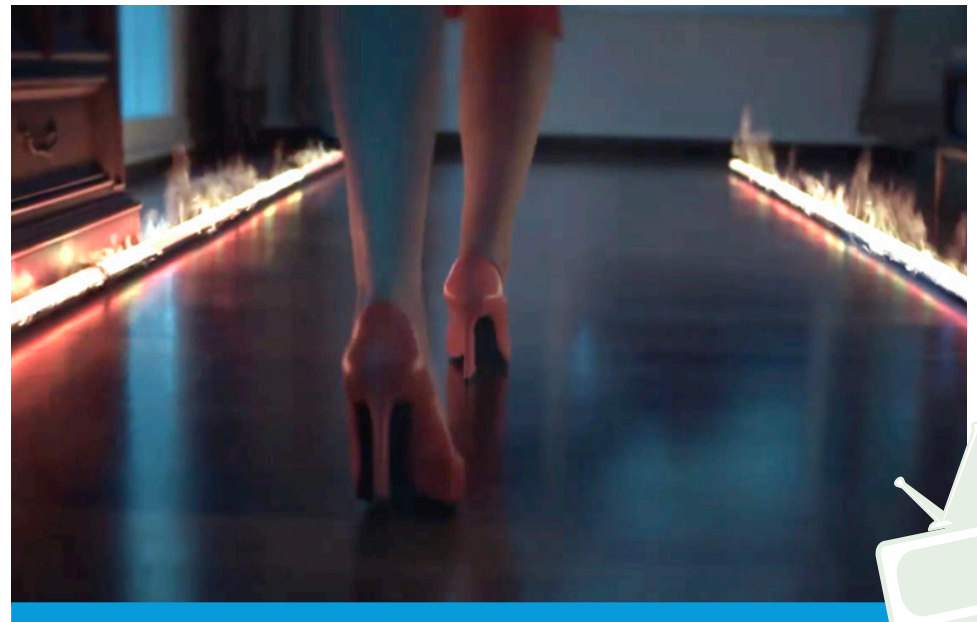

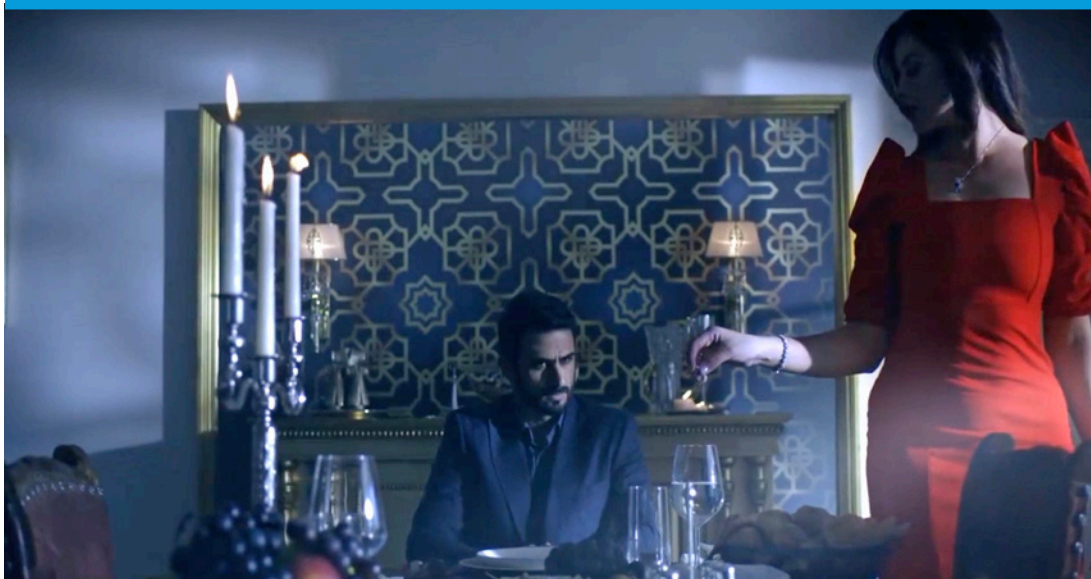

The love life of Kemal, the younger Numan son, is just as complicated. He falls in love with the poor Ruwaida, who supports her family while studying at university. Hiding his true identity, Kemal starts working as a taxi driver and moves to her neighborhood to get close to her. Their marriage plans are opposed by Adnan and Kemal’s friend Wissam, who also loves Ruwaida.

As Ruwaida prepares to marry Kemal, her mother is hurt in an accident. Kemal’s former love, the wealthy Hind, makes a deal with Ruwaida to pay the hospital bills if she gives up Kemal. Devastated at Ruwaida’s shock decision to reject him, Kemal ends up marrying Hind. It gets worse for Kemal when Ruwaida’s cousins decide to kill him when they hear about their relationship.

The plot thickens when Wissam prevents the killing at the price of Ruwaida marrying him. Kemal finally learns the truth and he and Ruwaida decide to reunite. However, they must flee to another city to be safe from Wissam and Hind.

The Numan family finds itself torn in conflicting directions as sons Cemal and Kemal seek love, but are at risk of becoming victims of those plotting around them. To find happiness and protect their family they will need to stay one step ahead of their rivals.
