IS THAT REALLY YOUR VOICE

Every week, 15 contestants will come onto the stage, each with a numbered label, and each of them saying that they can sing. While some of them may have great voices, others will certainly not!

However, they are all convinced that they can sing very well. The aim of the 3 jury members is to guess who is good and who is not.

There are three jury members, all of them famous singers in their own right.

The jury members need to guess correctly over the course of 4 rounds in order to win points for themselves. At the end of every episode, the jury member with the most points will be that week's winner. They will win 20.000 euros which is distributed among the contestants who helped them to win.

First Round: The Look

Each jury member will carefully assess the appearance of the contestants and select one of them based on looks alone. 3 out of the 15 contestants will be selected at this round. They will also make a guess about whether the contestant has a good or bad voice. Once the guess has been revealed, it's time for the contestant to perform. We will see if they are right or not! If the guess is correct, the jury member will score one point.

Second Round: Q and A

Each jury member will select one contestant and be able to ask just one question. 3 out of the 12 remaining contestants will be selected in this round. After a short conversation about this question, the jury member will decide if the contestant has a good voice or bad voice. Then the contestant will perform, and the truth will be revealed. Again, if the jury member has guessed correctly, he/she wins one point.

Third Round: The Duet

Each jury member will select one contestant for a duet performance. 3 out of the 9 remaining contestants will be selected in this round. After their selection, each jury member will perform a duet with their selected contestant on stage, and we will find out if they selected well or not. If they made a good voice selection, the jury member will win one point.

Fourth Round: Best Voice (Best Performance)

In the fourth and final round, the target of the jury members is to find the best voice from among the 6 remaining contestants. The studio audience will have the final say in who is the best voice. 3 out of the 6 contestants will be selected in this round. There will be only one winner and only one jury member will be able to win the point. After the jury have selected one contestant each, we will hear the 3 performances. If there are two good voices and one bad, then the studio audience will decide which of the two good singers was the best one.

At the end of the episode, the jury member with the most points will win a prize of 20.000 euros. The prize will be divided among the contestants they selected to perform and helped to win that week.
