LOVE TRIANGLE

Karim and Zaina are head over heels in love and decide to get married, dreaming of a happy life together in the romantic comedy “Love Triangle”. But the snobbery of Karim’s wealthy mother is destined to split them apart. When their paths cross years later, their lives are plunged into turmoil by a powerful brew of jealousy, vengeance and passion.

While Zaina’s modest family are delighted that she is to wed the charming and handsome Karim, his mother is adamant in her opposition to a woman she sees as inferior to her well-bred son. Karim ultimately obeys his mother and without even a goodbye, he abandons Zaina, leaving her heartbroken at the wedding hall.

This cruel decision is a turning point in the life of the handsome and successful Karim, a prince charming who could win every young woman’s heart. The guilt and pain of leaving the woman he loves sucks the passion out of him. Giving up on his romantic dreams, he buries himself in his work.

The charming and beautiful Zaina is also transformed by the experience. She is capable of winning over anyone with her energy, smiling face and kindness, but now she must also be tough and uncompromising. Her seemingly unbreakable shield is now vital to protect her fragile heart during the challenges ahead.

Five years have passed and Karim has settled in America, where he runs a hotel chain. He has got engaged to his new girlfriend Mariam and wants to marry her back in their hometown and start a new life there. Again, marital bliss seems to be within reach, but life has enough dramatic twist in store.

Zaina now works for a wedding planning company, making other couples’ dreams come true after hers was cruelly crushed. Her trauma is set to surface again as, by fate, it is Mariam’s mother who runs her company. Inevitably, it is Zaina who is assigned to plan the grand wedding of her former sweetheart.

Karim too finds his world turned upside down when he sees Zaina again and realizes that he still has powerful feelings for her. Both are torn in different directions by feelings of regret, guilt and longing to rekindle the special love they once shared.

The wealthy and well-groomed Mariam finds herself trapped within this tempestuous love triangle, her comfortable and easy life shaken by the emotional drama.

Karim and Zaina are overwhelmed by conflicting feelings of anger and desire as they are drawn towards each other once again. With all the pain that they have endured, they struggle to accept that their flame of romance still burns. With family and friends pulling them in different directions, the two of them must find a way to bring a happy ending to their turbulent love story.
