PERFECT GROOM

In reality, she's in the hunger threshold, working for the minimum wage and writing about astrology in a magazine instead of writing important news. What's even worse is that, Melike's family thinks that the plastic surgeon Mehmet is Melike's fiancé whereas he's engaged with his boss, not with Melike.

One day, Melike gets the chance to write about her dream news but the news has something to do with Mehmet. Mehmet's uncle, who is the partner of the hospital Mehmet works, has been in a forbidden relationship since a long time. This woman is Diva Perihan, who was once a very famous singer but whose career ended now. Perihan tries to commit a suicide to attract the press' attention by getting her lover divorced.

Mehmet's uncle is married to Suna and can't get divorced because of the marriage contract. If they get divorced, the hospital that belongs to his uncle, will be owned by Suna's son Engin; her son from her previous marriage. Mehmet is an idealist doctor; the plastic surgery patients of his well-known hospital are socialite women but at the same time he operates poor people with this cash up at the hospital. If Engin gets to own the hospital, this fund will be closed and there will be no subventions. That's why Mehmet tries to save the marriage of his uncle and tries to hide his relationship from Suna.

One day, when Perihan tries to commit suicide again, Mehmet's uncle sends him to Perihan's place in order to persuade her not to talk to journalists and not to commit suicide. Since Perihan is the patient of Mehmet, she likes him and trusts in him. On the other side, Melike wants to write about Perihan but since she's her fan, she wants to save her from committing suicide. As Mehmet is trying to prevent Perihan from committing suicide, Melike secretly goes into Perihan's house and because of her clumsiness, she causes Perihan to fall down in her balcony. As of that moment, Mehmet just won't get along with Melike.

That night, Melike is forced by the police to get out of her apartment since she has not been paying her rent for months and she goes to Tahsin's place for the night. Melike and Tahsin are close friends; they work together for the magazine. Tahsin is in a good financial situation. He is Mehmet's neighbor and his close friend at the same time. He is aware of Melike's feelings for Mehmet since a long time.

Melike's musician but idled brother, who is living in Germany has only one dream; getting famous. That's why he takes stage at the night clubs in Berlin. But one night he gets involved in a fight and things get worse. Melike's mother, who is the householder of the family, decides to return to Turkey and visit Melike's house together with her son, her other daughter and her dad, before darker days arrive.

Melike finds out that Perihan is the mistress of Mehmet's uncle. She has no other choice than blackmailing Mehmet because of her family's pressure to meet her fiancé. Either Mehmet will act like her fiancé or Melike will tell Suna and the press about the truth. Thus, the fake love game between Melike and Mehmet starts.

What kind of a life is awaiting Melike after the truth reveals itself?
