PICK'N RUN

2 teams made up of 4 contestants! And A, B, C and D answers chosen by the members of each group!

7 questions, each more entertaining than the other

7 difficult race courses one has to get through

And only... 4 personified answers...

Hold on tight, because the game is about to start!

The presenter asks only 7 questions!

Question 1: 500 points&money

Question 2: 1000 points&money

Question 3: 1500 points&money

Question 4: 2000 points&money

Question 5: 2500 points&money

Question 6: 3000 points&money

Question 7: 4500 points&money

And now...The 4 answer choice questions are asked...One contestant in each team becomes the answer.

Within 60 seconds, the 2 competing teams decide within the team what answer is correct.an entertaining and skill-demanding race course.

PICK'N RUN

When the time is up, the two competing teams send whatever contestant they think is the correct answer to an entertaining and skill-demanding race course.

Before losing any time, the answer they think is correct starts running down an entertaining, but also difficult race course.

Sack jumping

Pulled by elastic

Journey in a basin

Tough walk with stools

Balls moved with the nose

Hula-hoop bears

and a huge sling catapulting the contestants.

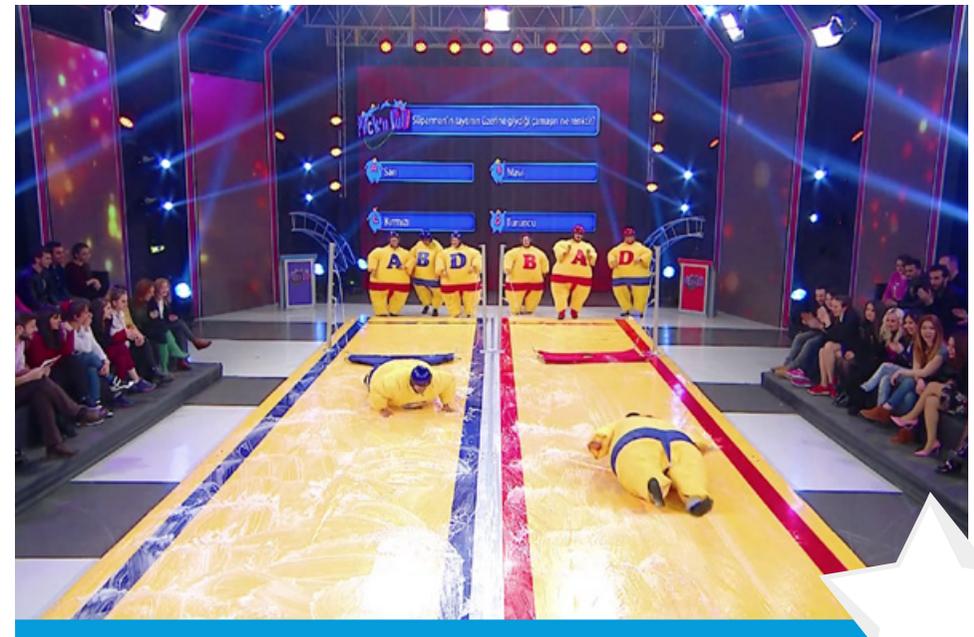

The first answer, out of the two groups, that finishes the skill-demanding race course, presses the button and if the answer is correct, the group receives its points. If the answer is incorrect, the remaining answers have a discussion within the team again, and send the answer they believe to be correct to the race course. Of course, time is of prime importance, because the competing team will not remain idle! The contestants have to continue competing until they find the right answer!

The team that has the highest points after 7 questions/courses wins PICK'N RUN.

In the end, there is a big prize.

PICK'N RUN with personified answers making a run for it, games one more entertaining than the other and amazing prizes!
