Genre:
Factual Entertainment

Duration:
Weekly, Prime Time

THANK YOU

Thank You!

The production of the program will look for famous people / celebrities who managed their lives into a great success in different ways.

For Example: Successful businessperson, successful artist, successful politicians, sport stars, actors, singers etc.

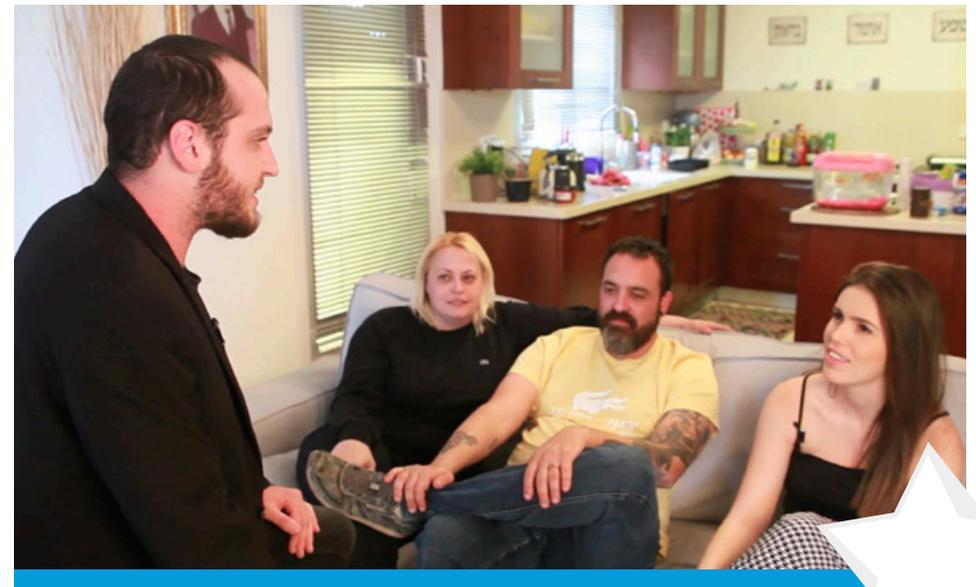

The show will approach them and ask their participation in order to thank people that helped them in their past and deserve their “Thank-you”. The production will investigate and find several names of people that deserve thank you gesture.

**Those people will be optional for the program as a subject to express gratitude on behalf of the famous people but just one of them, with the best story, will take part in the show.*

Following an investigation and interviews, the production will begin the process of physically searching for the person who caused a large and significant change in the life of the famous person.

**The acquaintance between them in the past affects the celebrity’s life today in a variety of perspectives.*

The celebrity’s identity will remain confidential to the thanked person until the last part of the show the “Thank You Party”.
